DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dunne (3,564,783).

Dunne discloses an elevated box truss 26 extending over a roadway and having opposite ends secured to upstanding supports 28, 30; the box truss being comprised of a plurality of box truss sections secured to one another in an end-to-end relationship (Fig. 2), at least one of the box truss sections adapted to have a messaging sign 20 mounted therein. The box truss sections have horizontally spaced-apart first 34 and second 36 upper tubes and horizontally spaced-apart first and second lower tubes, first truss members 46 interconnecting the first and second upper tubes, second truss members interconnecting the first and second lower tube members, third truss members 44 interconnecting the second upper tube and the second lower tube, and fourth truss members interconnecting the first upper tube and the first lower tube. A messaging sign 20 is mounted in the one box truss section. At least a portion of the messaging sign is positioned between the first upper tube, the first lower tube, the first truss members, the second truss members, and the third truss members.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2-4 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dunne (3,564,783) in view of Safavi et al. (2004/0123501).

Dunne discloses the invention substantially as claimed, as set forth above. However, Dunne does not disclose a specific type of sign. Safavi teaches that it was known in the art to provide a sign that is both variable and digital. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a variable, digital sign, as taught by Safavi, in the system disclosed by Dunne, in order to make the message of the sign easily changeable.

5. Claims 5 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dunne (3,564,783).

Dunne discloses the invention substantially as claimed, as set forth above. However, the sign disclosed by Dunne is not adjustable. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the sign adjustable because it has been held that the provision of adjustability, where needed, involves only routine skill in the art. In re Stevens, 101 USPQ 284 (CCPA 1954).

6. Claims 9, 10, 20 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dunne (3,564,783) in view of Reinitz (3,952,978).

Art Unit: 3611

Dunne discloses the invention substantially as claimed, as set forth above. However, there is no walkway within the truss. Reinitz teaches that it was known in the art to place a walkway within a truss in order to allow access to a sign mounted on the truss. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a walkway in the truss disclosed by Dunne, as taught by Reinitz, in order to allow easy access to the sign.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 6-8, 11, 17-19 and 22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

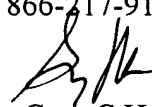

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
